

First off-Making address a required field for a public filing--in other words, making people show their address and name in order to be heard- is absolute bullshit. There should be another way and/or address and personal info should not be shown. Secondly, I find it almost impossible to believe that the FCC really intends to go against the interest of almost every single person in the country by relaxing ownership regulations for TV stations and other media outlets. It is an outrage, and shows exactly who the FCC cares about- corporations and no one else. I am disgusted.
